Based on a shocking true story.

A Catholic priest harbors a scandalous secret. But why are his superiors so anxious to protect him? In this searing drama, Keith Carradine and Blythe Danner play the proud, devout parents of an 8-year-old altar boy who has been sexually molested by the priest. The couple is shocked when the church hierarchy tries to buy their silence. But with the help of a Cajun lawyer, they discover a cover-up that leads them to fight for justice — at all costs. (AS,AL,MV) 1-30. Oct.13,17,21,25,31

BLACK RAIN

From Ridley Scott, the director of Alien and Blade Runner, comes this explosive action hit about a New York cop in the Land of the Rising Sun. Michael Douglas is the half-trigger detective with one last chance to make good when the Japanese gangster he's escorting escapes into the Osaka underworld. Stranded in a culture he barely understands, Douglas must rely on a straight-arrow Japanese cop (Ken Takakura), a shifty nightclub siren (Kate Capshaw) and his own rule-breaking tactics to bring the bad guys in. IN COUNTRY

Playing it straight and touching, Bruce Willis anchors a powerful tale of a young girl's quest for answers in the wake of war. An emotionally battered Vietnam veteran, Willis lives with niece Emily Lloyd (Cookie), whose father died in Vietnam before she was born. The girl pursues her father's story through letters and his diary, coping with a sad legacy... and helping her uncle to do the same. Memorable fare from the director of Moonstruck. (AS,ALV)R-155.
